

CSME EXCHANGE
A BROWN BAG SEMINAR

The Center for Science and Mathematics Education (CSME) is pleased to present the CSME Exchange, an interactive brown bag seminar for faculty, students, and staff. The next CSME Exchange is:

“Education in and with the Zooniverse Citizen Science Platform”

Lucy Fortson

University of Minnesota

Thursday, November 5
JFB room 334
12-1pm*

*Please bring your own lunch; drinks and snacks will be provided.

Lucy Fortson, Associate Professor and Associate Head at the University of Minnesota School of Physics & Astronomy, will discuss the education framework for Zooniverse and efforts to have students and members of the public participate in further analysis of citizen science data. Dr. Fortson is a co-founder of Zooniverse (zooniverse.org), the world's largest platform for volunteer, people-powered research.
