

REFUGES Afterschool Program

2019-2020

REFUGES PROGRAM
THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

The REFUGES afterschool program operates four days a week and serves refugee and new American youth in grades 7-12.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The REFUGES afterschool program provides refugee and new American students in grades 7-12 with academic support, educational enrichment, recreational activities, social development, and assistance with college applications. Activities include:

- One-on-one academic tutoring; science and math competitions; sports, art, and dance
- Hands-on STEM workshops
- College and Career Readiness (ACT, FAFSA completion, scholarship and college application) advice and support
- Activities to support social and emotional development
- Prevention Programming for parents and students

REFUGES operates during the school year with breaks for school holidays. The program meets from 3:00-6:30pm on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. On Saturdays, from 11:00-2:00pm at Refugee Education & Training Center (3900 S 250 W, Salt Lake City).
